With effect from April 1, 2023, a Related Party Transaction to which the subsidiary of PB Fintech Ltd is a party but the PB Fintech Ltd is not a party, shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten per cent of the annual standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary;

Any member of the Committee who has a potential interest in any Related Party Transaction(s) will recuse himself or herself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction(s).

Approval through circular resolution

In the event it becomes impractical or undesirable to wait until a meeting of the Committee to enter into a Related Party Transaction, such transaction may be approved by the Committee by way of circular resolution in accordance with this Policy and statutory provisions for the time being in force. Such approval must be ratified by the Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Omnibus/blanket approval

The Committee may also grant an omnibus/blanket approval as per this Policy in respect of Related Party Transactions which are repetitive/routine/regular in nature and are entered on long term contract basis. Such approvals would however be subject to the following details being available while granting such approval;

- i. Names/s of the related party; nature of transaction; period of transaction; amount of transaction that can be entered into;
- ii. The indicative base price/ current contracted price and formula for variation in the price, if any; and
- iii. Such other conditions/details as the Committee may deem fit.

The Audit Committee may also, in the interest of the conduct of affairs of the Company, grant omnibus/blanket approval for Related Party Transactions up to a value of Rs. 1 crore per transaction where the need for such transactions cannot be foreseen and for which the aforesaid details are not available.

The omnibus/blanket approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one financial year and shall require fresh approval after the expiry of such financial year. However, the details of the transactions entered into under such approvals, will be placed for review of the Committee/ Board on a quarterly basis.

Such omnibus approval shall specify (i) the name/s of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into, (ii) the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit;

Board's Approval

If the Committee is of the view that a Related Party Transaction should be placed before the Board, or if the Board in any case prefers to review any such Related Party Transaction or if it is mandatory under any law for Board to approve the Related Party Transaction, then the Board shall consider and approve the Related Party Transaction at its meeting in accordance with the provisions of this Policy. It is hereby clarified, that until otherwise permitted in law, the Board will not be able to approve a Related Party Transaction by way of a circular resolution.

Shareholder's Approval

All material related party transactions and subsequent material modifications shall require approval of the shareholders through resolution and no related party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the entity is a related party to the particular transaction or not. All Related Party Transactions in excess of the limits prescribed under the Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules made thereunder, which are not in the ordinary course of business or not on Arm's Length basis shall also require prior approval of the shareholders through special resolution and the Related Parties shall abstain from voting on such resolution.

Information to be provided to the Audit Committee/ Board for approval:

To review a Related Party Transaction, the Committee/ Board must be provided with all relevant material information of the Related Party Transaction like:

- a) The name of the related party and nature of relationship
 - b) The nature, duration of the contract and particulars of the contract or arrangement
 - c) The material terms of the contract or arrangement including the value, if any;
 - d) Any advance paid or received for the contract or arrangement, if any;
 - e) The manner of determining the pricing and other commercial terms, both included as part of contract and not considered as part of the contract.
 - f) Whether all factors relevant to the contract have been considered, if not, the details of factors not considered with the rationale for not considering those factors; and
 - g) Any other information relevant or important for the Board to take a decision on the proposed transaction.
- in addition to the justification on arms' length/ in the ordinary course of business and the benefits to the Company and to the Related Party.

In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Committee will consider the following factors, among others, to the extent relevant to the Related Party Transaction:

- (i) Whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on arm's length basis to the Company and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
- (ii) Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of the Director/KMP;
- (iii) Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the proposed transaction; and

- (iv) Whether the Related Party Transaction is in the nature of conflict of interest for any Director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the Director or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the Directors, Key Managerial Personnel's or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and any other factors the Board/Committee deems relevant.
- (v) Whether there are any compelling business reasons / rationale for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;
- (vi) Whether the Company was notified about the Related Party Transaction before its commencement and if not, why pre-approval was not sought and whether subsequent ratification is allowed and would be detrimental to the Company

4.4. Exemptions:

- a) Subject to the applicable laws, approval of the audit committee would not be required for the Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company with its wholly owned subsidiaries, whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
- b) Subject to the applicable laws, approval of the board would not be required for the Related Party Transactions which are in the ordinary course of Company's business and entered on an Arm's Length basis.

5. Related Party Transactions not approved under this Policy

In the event, the Company becomes aware of a Related Party Transaction with a Related Party that has not been approved under this Policy, the matter shall be reviewed by the Committee or the Board as may be required in accordance with this Policy. The Committee, or the Board, as the case may be, shall consider all of the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the Related Party Transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the Related Party Transaction. The Committee, or the Board, as the case may be, shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting.

In any case, where the Committee, Board or the shareholders, as the case may be, determines not to ratify a Related Party Transaction that has been commenced without approval, the Committee or the Board, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, immediate discontinuation or rescission of the transaction. In connection with any review of a Related Party Transaction, the Committee, or the Board, as the case may be, has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

6. Disclosure

Details of all material transactions with related parties shall be disclosed quarterly along with the compliance report on corporate governance.

The company will make disclosures in compliance with the Accounting Standard and other applicable law on "Related Party Disclosures" in its Annual Report. The Policy shall be disclosed on the company's website and a web link thereto shall be provided in the Annual Report of the Company.

7. Interpretation and Amendment

This Policy shall be subject to the laws to the Company. In case of any dispute or difference upon the meaning/interpretation of any word or provision in this Policy, the same shall be referred to the Audit Committee and the decision of the Audit Committee in such a case shall be final. In interpreting such term / provision, the Audit Committee may consult the Board or may take help of any of the officers of the Company or an outside expert as it deems fit.

The Board shall have the power to amend any of the provisions of this Policy, substitute any of the provisions with a new provision or replace this Policy entirely with a new Policy, subject to the same being in compliance with the applicable laws.
